4000-Level Electives – 3 courses

- All electives are chosen in consultation with the major advisor to fulfill the proper distribution of literatures from different time periods. At least one course must be taken in pre-20th century literature, one at the 4000 level and one at the 6000 level. Refer to the major advisor and the catalogue for approved 4000-level electives.

6000-Level Electives – 2 courses

- Capstone course is Senior Seminar – SPAN 6850 (must be taken at Tulane). It is 4 credits and fulfills writing intensive requirement.

CRDV 1090 – Majors, Internships, and Jobs – (1 credit)

- This course is not a requirement for this major! It is an option for students who are interested in career development.
- Through this course students develop the necessary tools, skills, and resources to become career ready, learning what it takes to be an excellent candidate in today’s competitive job market. While taking CRDV 1090 students will create and refine professional documents, explore careers, conduct job/internship searches, develop networking and interviewing skills, and learn to utilize professional social media in order to network more effectively. Students will learn about the job/internship search process and know how to actively use this information in the real world. Students will have the unique opportunity to take personality and strength assessments in order to learn about their talents, interests, and preferred work environments. Students participate in a Mock Interview event with professionals from New Orleans.

Pre-20th Century Requirement:

Each student is required to take SPAN 4060 or ONE pre-twentieth-century course at the 4000-level, to be taken on campus in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese.

This information is for students pursuing a minor in SPANISH –

Requirements: 18 credit hours (6 classes)

- Three at the 3000-Level
- Three at the 4000-Level

Note: Minors are encouraged, but not required to take SPAN 4060 and Minors may not receive credit for courses taught in English.

- The Degree Plan and other information provided in this booklet serve only as advising tools. Newcomb-Tulane College advisors will help advise you on the core curriculum, decide on a major, and consult on any academic success issues.
- Your major advisors will advise you on major requirements.
- Students with multiple majors will have more than one advisor and will need to consult with the appropriate advisor.
- Be in the know about your major! By declaring early, you have access to a major advisor, are able to enroll in “majors only” classes, and are or list serves that enable you to receive information about events, internships, and opportunities.
- Pre-med and Pre-law students should also consult with the health professions advisors or the pre-law.
