Q: Who are the Faculty/Major advisors?

A: Dr. Ezra Ozcan.

Q: What is the process for declaring majors?

A: Students MUST come to the office to schedule a meeting with the major advisor and complete the necessary form with her. After that, the Chair will receive it for his signature. The student picks up the form and delivers it to the advising center.

Q: What is the process for transfer credit?

A: Submit signed Transfer Credit Approval form with academic advisor's signature, syllabus (this is key), and course description to the Chair.

Q: Is there a limit to the number of transfer credits that count towards the major?

A: Yes. The department will only transfer in two courses toward the major.

Q: Where do students often study abroad?

A: Students study in Europe, Latin America, and Australia primarily.

Q: What classes can students take within this major to fill the public service requirement?

A: The department offers several courses with a service-learning component. It is recommended that students check with the department about the offerings for each semester.

Q: Does TU have a graduate program in this area? Does your office have information on grad programs at other schools?

A: No, we don't have a graduate program at this time. However, we post information about graduate programs regularly.

Q: Are there any clubs affiliated with this program?

A: Yes, the Communication Majors Society (CMS).

Q: What internships/work study/summer programs do you know about?

A: The department often receives information about employment opportunities. Declared majors receive all information about these opportunities from the Communication list serve.
