

Digital Media

Major: Digital Media Location: 219 Newcomb Director: Dr. Mary Blue <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Email: mblue@tulane.edu• Phone: 862-3039	Secretary: Currently a temp
---	------------------------------------

Q: Who are the Faculty/Major advisors?

A: Dr. Mary Blue

Q: What is the process for declaring majors/minors?

A: Students should complete a Major/Minor Declaration form and email Dr. Blue to set up an appointment to have it signed.

Q: Where do students often study abroad?

A: Students study in Europe, Latin America, and Australia primarily.

Q: What classes can students take within this major to fill the public service requirement?

A: The following courses have a service-learning component: DMPR 3220

Q: Does TU have a graduate program in this area? Does your office have information on grad programs at other schools?

A: No, we don't. However, we post information about graduate programs.

Q: Are there any clubs affiliated with this program?

A: No. Many students are involved with TUBE and WTUL but they aren't directly affiliated.

Q: What internships/work study/summer programs do you know about?

A: The Contemporary Hollywood Film Program is a 6-credit summer course that features a trip to Hollywood. Students do internships in studios and production companies and on television shows and films all across the country. Work study opportunities are available in the department facilities. Students should contact Dr. Mary Blue mblue@tulane.edu for more information.

Q: Are there any places around the city that you would recommend for students to continue learning outside the classroom (i.e. museums, upcoming conferences or speakers)?

A: Yes, the New Orleans Film Festival, many production facilities, films. Opportunities are posted on the DMPR listserv.

Q: What is the process for transfer credit?

A: Submit signed Transfer Credit Approval form with academic advisor's signature, syllabus (this is key), and course description to Dr. Mary Blue.